Study Information

- Why do people stop eating after a meal?
- This research survey aims to explore the different reasons individuals with a spinal cord injury stop eating compared to individuals without a spinal cord injury.

Eligibility

- Adults, 18 years and older
- Persons with a spinal cord injury
- Persons without a spinal cord injury

Interested, or want more info? Call or email the study team!
Gary J. Farkas, Ph.D.
gjf50@med.miami.edu
(305) 243-4518

IRB: 20210350

Want to learn about reasons why you stop eating?

If you are an adult with these interests, this research study may be for you.

http://www.umpmr.med.miami.edu/research

Click on the link or scan QR code below to be directed to the survey.

https://umiami.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_6F50k41jm1Xlzn0